CHAUTAUQUA OPENS TODAY

The Redpath Chautauqua opened today, beginning a seven day programme. The big tent is pitched on the campus of the City School and everything is in readiness for the biggest and best Chautauqua ever held here. Our Superintendent this year is R. E. Bendell, one of the best in the Chautauqua service, and a general favorite with everybody.

The advance sale of season tickets has been splendid and has "gone over the top," with several yet to be heard from. The Chautauqua this year promises to be a success in every way and the programme, which is a most excellent one, is as follows:

Thursday Night—Concert, Sibyl Sammis Singers and Miss Mary Cameron, pianist; Lecture, "Facing the Task"—Dr. H. E. Rompel.

Friday Morning—Children's hour. Friday Afternoon—Concert, Emerson Williams Co.; Monologue, to be announced, Mr. V. S. Watkins.

Friday Night—Concert, Emerson Williams Co.; Lecture, "How to Be Young at Seventy or Old at Forty," Dr. Carolyn E. Geisel.

Saturday Morning—Children's hour.

Saturday Afternoon—Concert, Mendelssohn Trio; Lecture, "The Wonders of Barbanks," Henry A. Adrian.

Saturday Night—Grand Concert, Louise Stallings and Mendelssohn Trio.

Monday Morning—Children's hour. Monday Afternoon—Grand Concert, New York Opera Singers.

Monday Night—New York Opera Singers; Lecture, "Human Nature and Politics," Opie Reed.

Tuesday Morning—Children's hour.

Tuesday Afternoon—Concert, Orchestra; Lecture, "Back to the Farm," Hon. C. G. Jordan.

Tuesday Night—Gilbert and Sullivan's Famous Opera, "H. M. S. Pinafore." Special scenic and lighting effects.

Wednesday Morning—Children's hour.

Wednesday Afternoon—Lecture, "Modern Unrest," Donald H. McGibeny.

Wednesday Night—Delightful American Comedy—"Nothing But The Truth."

Thursday Morning—Children's hour.

Thursday Afternoon—Children's Pageant, "The Good Fairy Thrift"; Concert, Swiss Singers and Yodlers.

Thursday Night—Swiss Singers and Yodlers; Lecture, "Human Efficiency," Ralph Parlette.

Children's hour will be at 9:30 o'clock each morning except the first morning; afternoon performances at 3:00 o'clock; and night performances at 8:00 o'clock.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

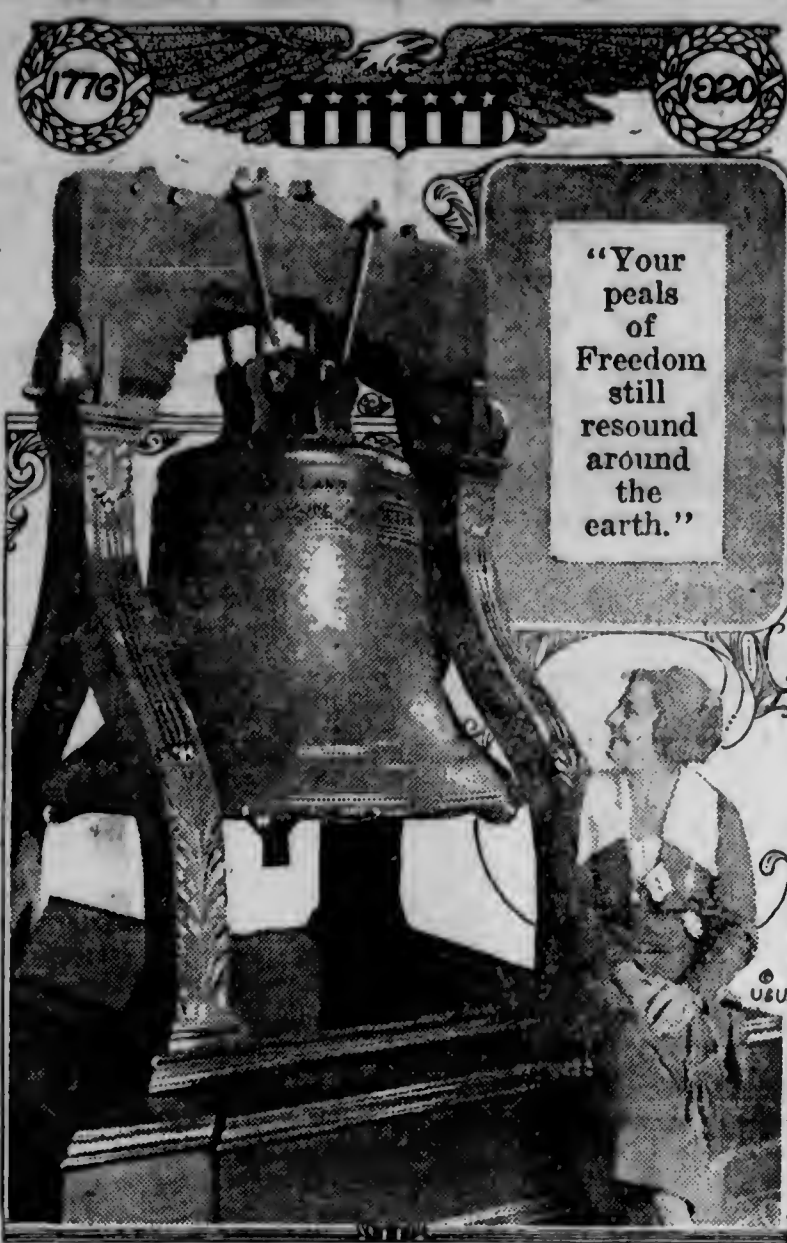

Miss Verna Thompson underwent an operation Tuesday for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. She stood the operation well and is getting along nicely. The operation was performed by Dr. J. F. Reynolds.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of thanking our many friends and neighbors for their kind attentions and beautiful floral tributes to our husband and father.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

It seems to be the fashion of these after-war days among certain groups of people, especially in the cities, to sneer at patriotism. To the sentiment of love of our country, there are plenty of people who try to back up all the ills that have come upon us. Is sugar extortionately high? Drat such a country! Are the railroads bad performers? Democracy is to blame. Are the politicians rambunctious? The country is going to the devil.

Nothing of the kind. The country is not at fault, the republic and democracy are as glorious as they ever were, the nation is as right as it ever was. The trouble is human. If there are wrongs they are wrongs perpetrated by human people and they will be corrected—they cannot persist in this democratic republic. Evolution—and the war was only an incident of evolution—brings to our doorstep queer children. They don't look right to us today, but 50 years from today we will know that the trouble-some foundlings were only details in the long, long trail of earthly progress.

If everything went well with us, we would not know it because there would be nothing to contrast it with. We must have the hard knocks to enjoy the sweets of existence.

The Fourth of July is upon us again. Let us remember that on that day, July 4, 1776, when we gave to the world our Declaration of Independence, a nation was born that gave world evolution its sharpest impetus. It suddenly brought to the front a smouldering consciousness of human dignity, of rights that belong to every living soul. In the 144 years that have elapsed, the common people of this earth have advanced in education, intelligence, good living and liberty more than they did in the 4000 years previously, and that declaration and this democracy, have been largely responsible for it.

Glorious Fourth! Aye, it is as glorious as 144 years ago, and its glory will live as long as the word "liberty" sounds good to mankind.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION NEARING ITS CRISIS

This day the bursts of oratory from San Francisco almost swings the globe to opposite direction. The great Democratic convention is at its crisis and backers of the various candidates are joyous in approval of nominating speeches, which were made yesterday. Names before the convention from last reports are Cox, Palmer, Gerard, Cummings, Hitecock, McAdoo and others, ten in all. The convention platform is said to be concise, straight to the mark and free from superfluous and double construction. The convention instead of being a political mob is a joyous love feast in which all parties participate. No indications at the present justifies even a speculative prediction of the standard bearers of the National Democratic party. The platform is free from any wet or dry plank and joy pervades the very vein of the delegates.

Indications are that the voice of the convention will be as of one man and that the body will adjourn with the entire party in harmony and behind the ticket they may name. At this writing all men and women of the Democratic faith exclaim "Great is Democracy and the name the party may present to the people."

NOTICE!

The ladies of the Baptist church will have an exchange on July 10th. Place will be announced later.

QUEENSWARE and GLASSWARE

McGuire Bros. are in receipt of a new shipment of Queensware and Glassware. These are excellent goods, in new patterns, and are well worth the money asked for them.

SUBSCRIPTION DANCE

Plans have been completed for a subscription dance to be given on Thursday evening, July 15th in the new ball room at the Tabb Theatre. Music will be furnished by Smith's orchestra from Lexington. Electric fans have been placed around the dancing hall which will be cool and comfortable. The committee in charge of the dance is: J. R. Owings, Irwin D. Wood and Ashby Blevins, and this promises to be one of the best dances ever given in the city. A large number of visitors from over the State is expected.

BIG SUIT COMPROMISED

The suit of the Miller-Prewitt-Goff Land & Oil Company in which the James Townsend heirs were seeking a portion of six thousand acres of land in Estill, Lee, Powell and Wolfe counties, was compromised in Federal Court at Lexington Tuesday, the heirs being paid eleven thousand two hundred dollars and they pay costs of the suit. The case was up for trial when the compromise was affected. The compromise settles for all time the title to the big boundary of land.

PLEADED GUILTY

C. V. Ansley, of Wolfe county, who was arrested at Natural Bridge Sunday and brought to this city, charged with transporting and having in his possession intoxicating liquors, had his examining trial before Commissioner Wood Monday, and on a plea of guilty was held over to the District Court at Covington under a one thousand dollar bond which he failed to give.

FATHERHOOD, A PROFESSION

(By Charles F. Powlison, General Secretary National Child Welfare Association.)

We hear a great deal of the sanctity of motherhood and of the sacred responsibilities of the mother; but who talks about the nobility of fatherhood and the wonderful privilege of being a father? One would almost suppose that children had but one parent, or that, beyond the obligation of support, a father owed nothing to his children.

As a matter of fact, just what does he owe them?

In the first place, he owes them the best possible inheritance of health and natural strength. If the fathers of the present generation had been taught, as schoolboys, that they owed their children a heritage of physical health, the present generation of children would be a far healthier, happier lot of youngsters.

And having given his children a healthy heritage, the father should share with the mother the oversight of their children's well-being. I know—as everyone else does—hosts of fathers who not only fail to take any responsibility about the children's habits, but who actually, though unconsciously, work against the mother by giving surreptitious candy, by keeping the children up late to play with them and thus make her work with them more difficult. The result is that Father is very popular, while Mother is considered "awfullyussy."

On the mental side, a child, as he grows older, looks more and more to his father. Wise is the father who takes an active interest in current events or takes himself on the side of "his" cause, movement, for through his example his children naturally acquire a sense of good citizenship.

And on the moral and religious side, how true is Father a moral figure-head in his own family? Usually it is Mother who represents the moral law, or, if Father does take a hand, it is merely as the executor of her decreed punishment. "Wait till your Father comes home!" is either an empty threat, or, in rarer cases, a phrase filled with terror for the small rebel.

left entirely to the women. The children see Mother start off alone for church, while Father remains at home to read his paper. The notion that church is a woman's affair is formed so naturally that, later in life, it seems an instinct.

How much children miss, how much fathers miss, by this one-sided parent-hood! Happy the boy who looks up to his father as an ideal of bodily vigor, wisdom and goodness. And this does not mean that Father must stand on a pedestal. Far from it! Anyone who has read the charming letters of Theodore Roosevelt to his children sees, as in a mirror, the picture of a father utterly devoted to his children, and utterly adored in turn. Whether he is leaping from haystack to haystack in a wild game of tag, or reading aloud with his children gathered around him, he is always their chosen companion, their best friend, their greatest hero. And there are many devoted fathers! Francis E. Leupp gives us a charming picture of one in his little book, "A Day

With Father."

Reversing a well-known quotation, we may say, "Happy is the father who knows his own child!" Happy because there is no more delightful study than that of the development of a child, as he progresses from infancy, through childhood to youth. Happy because of the inspiration that comes from the companionship of children. Happiest of all because, in the trying times of their youth and early maturity, he will be able to understand his children. He can guide and counsel them, instead of standing helplessly by—an outsider. If only American fathers would know their children, they would find them more interesting than any business in the world, and as for the children, who can measure their gain?

Let us all be thankful for all the weather we receive, for if we melt in summer, we'll freeze back when winter comes.

Before a natural born leader gets a following, his birthright must first be recognized.

TOO MUCH ARGUMENT

On the western plains the sheepman goes out with several thousand head and one human companion.

An ex-sheepman was telling of a fellow he once rode with. "Not a word had passed between us for more than a week and that night when we rolled up in our blankets he suddenly asked:

"Hear that cow beller?"

"Sounds to me like a bull," I replied. No answer, but the following morning I noticed him packing up.

"Going to leave?" I questioned.

"Yes," he replied.

"What for?"

"Too much argument."

A GOOD HEART

Father: My dear, if you want a good husband, marry Mr. Goodheart. He really and truly loves you.

Daughter: "Are you sure of that, pop?"

Father: "Yes, indeed. I've been borrowing money from him for six months, and still he keeps coming."

There was a time, when if a man wore a vacant expression, and his eyes popped out of his head like those of a dying fish, he was classed as an idiot. But nowadays he gets into the Movies, and is classed as a star and gets $20,000,000, or thereabouts per year.

ATTENTION PRODUCERS

"Nine varieties of butter, all made from cream! That seems strange, yet the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Markets, Chicago office, under date of June 8th, reports quotations on that many different grades of butter, ranging in price from 45 cents to 55 1-2 cents."

This variation in prices is due to the different qualities of butter being marketed. In the beginning, the milk was all generally of the same quality, but somewhere along the line there was a failure to take care of cream properly and this resulted in the many varieties of butter.

"The trouble is, our producers don't all take care of cream as they should. This is due to the fact that they do not generally understand just how cream should be handled in order to deliver the very highest quality. One of the most important things is clean utensils, clean separators, washed after each separation. Another important feature is promptly cooling the cream. It is also important that cream from each milking be kept separate until it is thoroughly cooled. Do not mix warm and cold cream."

"It is a short-sighted policy for producers to deliver poor cream, as butter made from such product brings a lower price on the market. The price creamerymen pay for cream is largely governed by the selling price of the butter made."

"In some districts, cream is bought on a graded basis, a higher price being paid for the better grades of butterfat. This plan of purchasing is doubtless growing in favor, as through this method the producer is stimulated to produce and market a better quality of cream."

as a candidate for the office of

Circuit Judge of the Twenty-first District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic voters at the primary election to be held on August 7, 1920.

OUT OF THE SENATORIAL RACE

Colonel Z. T. Proctor, of Litchfield, is no longer a candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator. The Hon. Proctor is very considerate. First, he did not have time to make the canvass and second, by his retirement a state wide primary would be obviated and thereby a large sum of money would be saved, says Mr. Proctor. The fact as we see it, Proctor could not win over R. P. Ernst, and if he did gain the nomination it would be only a matter of form. What Proctor faced as most dangerous was the mighty roller of Beckham forces that would come as a avalanche, sweeping all opposition before it. Yes, Proctor is considerate!

WOMEN IN THE FAR WEST

It was a wag who said "Oh woman, woman, lovely woman, you are a trump," but he did not misnomer of man's highest regard. She adorns the home in love and sweetness. With her the social and business circles possess a halo that words cannot express, and a woman in the person of Mrs. George Bass adorned at a crucial moment the chair at San Francisco, and the gavel that wrapped for order commanded perfect silence in that, the greatest of Democratic gatherings known to the world today. She brings into existence the babe that develops into the nun, and now in this good year 1920, help-mate as she is, names the man of the hour, the man to be head of the nation. Our hat is off and when approving the pure impulses, how to her who God gave as man's helper.

Our own, a Kentucky woman, of the Ninth Congressional district, of our neighboring town of Morehead, did herself proud as she honored that body of Democrats, seconding the nomination of James M. Cox, of the State of Ohio. Others who made secondary speeches were, Mrs. Susan Fitzgerald, of Massachusetts. The convention paid her tribute while she sang "Oh, You Beautiful Doll." Mrs. Force Parker, of Cal.; Mrs. Georgia Ormby, of Cal.; Mrs. Lillian Sire, of New York, also seconded nominations. Women at California will aid in naming the next President of the United States.

WILL GET READY

The Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church South meets in Lexington the early part of September and all churches are expected to be ready to report to the conference during this meeting. It requires some work to be ready.

ACCEPTS POSITION

Ermie French has resigned his position with the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., and has accepted a more lucrative one with the National Candy Co., at Kansas City. Mr. French's many friends in his old home town are justly proud of him.

and the success he is making in the business world.

UNION MEETING

The first of the series of union meetings for the months of July and August will be held at the Methodist church Sunday evening at 7:30, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. M. V. P. Yeaman.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Rook Party

One of the loveliest affairs of this busy social week, was the rook party given yesterday by Mrs. William Howell at her country place on the Grassy Lick pike. After the games lovely refreshments were served.

For Miss Hall's Guests

Miss Frances Hazelrigg, attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hazelrigg, will entertain with a dance this evening in the new ball room at the Tabb Theatre. The affair will be given in compliment to Misses Margaret Settles, of Elizabethtown, and Jane Crouch, of Bethel, who are the guests of Miss Nancy Clay. About sixty of the younger set will be present.

Sewing Party

Mrs. J. Will Clay entertained the Sewing Circle yesterday at her home on North Maysville street in compliment to her guest, Miss Vitula Kinsolving, of Louisville, and Mrs. W. Caldwell Clay. After an afternoon spent with dainty needle work the guests were invited into the dining room where a delicious lunch was served. The table had for its centre piece a silver basket filled with pink sweet peas, and the pink color scheme was carried out in the mints and ices and tiny pink baskets were given as favors. Mrs. Clay's guests numbered about twenty young matrons and girls.

Mrs. Strossman Entertains

Mrs. William H. Strossman was hostess at an informal card party yesterday afternoon at her home on North Maysville street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with the loveliest of flowers sent by friends and others from Mrs. Strossman's own garden. Bridge was played after which luncheon was served from the card tables. Mrs. Strossman's party included: Mrs. Percy D. Bryan, Mrs. John Jody, Mrs. Ollie W. McCormick, Miss Ella Priest, Mrs. Samuel Whitehead, Mrs. C. B. Dnerson, Mrs. Allen G. Prewitt, Mrs. Jack Graves, Mrs. Joseph Conroy, Mrs. Charles Derriekson, Mrs. J. Dillard Hazelrigg, and Miss Laura Graves.

Miss Ramsey's Party

Another party was added to the list of gayeties of the younger set yesterday afternoon when Miss Margaret Ramsey was hostess at cards, entertaining at her home on Samuels avenue. The rooms were decorated with pink sweet peas and blue delphinium and presented a most attractive appearance. Miss Ramsey received in a girlish frock of pink organdie that was most becoming. After the games lovely refreshments were served. Miss Ramsey's guests were: Misses Margaret Nesbitt, Emily Hazelrigg, Sara Frances Hamilton, Mary Lawless Gatewood, Mildred Gatewood, Elizabeth Horton, Elizabeth Coleman, Catherine Howell, Dorothy Tyler, Maurine Crockett, Sharpshurg: Mrs.

Light, tasty biscuits, wholesome white bread, delicious, airy cakes are the invariable rule when Lexington Cream Flour is used. It improves the pastry of the best cooks—opens the way to new table delicacies of all kinds, and once used, becomes a real necessity in any kitchen.

Lexington Cream Flour is made from wheat grown on the limestone soil of the famous Blue Grass region of Kentucky, the finest wheat lands in the world. It is packed in attractive sanitary sacks of 12 and 24-pound size. It is much whiter, requires less shortening and is more wholesome than ordinary flour.

BE AN OPTIMIST, OLD PAL.

Every time you can smile, Old Boy, in the face of trouble, pass the smile along. You see things ain't as bad as they are doped out to be, and a bunch of this hard-up, depressed feeling is a sentimental, not a real condition. You can make your life as gloomy as if you were playing tag with a graveyard with your way of thinking, or you can shine it up by a feeling of confidence. Get hep to the first. It is the easier method. The optimist wins, Old Pal. A hopeful optimist and sterling honesty are the ball bearings of business negotiations. The guy who cops the opportunities and does things is the gazabo the world waits to crown. But he has got to do things—no four-flushing. A drum is a loud-sounding instrument, but the business end of a mosquito bite is a line on your attention. There is no corner on kindness—love is its own paymaster. The optimist ever has a hunch that the mist will be put out of commission and pass away. The pessimist is betting even money it will last always. Take it from ye pastor and remember that the hopeful optimistic man is a luminary in any community. The pessimist feels it is a sacred duty to pike around with an extinguisher. In the realm of birds the lark is the optimist, the crow the pessimist. Why be a crow?

Some whom the public insist on lionizing betray the borrowed skin.

DOUBLE-UP ON CROPS

AND SAVE SPACE

It is now the season when the potatoes are getting into flower and the sweet corn is getting about the knee high stage. It is also the time to double up on crops and economize on space. If the potato rows are as far apart as they should be, cabbage plants can be set between the rows for a fall crop and by the time the potatoes are dug, the cabbages can have full possession and grow along and the ground is in continuous bearing.

A gardening experiment with sweet corn which has proved successful is to plant celery plants between the rows. The shade of the corn protects the young plants until they become established, and by that time the ears are picked and the stalks cut down the celery may be hilled up and permitted to grow along until ready to be harvested in the fall. Of course, it cannot be expected that the finest quality of celery can be grown by this means and it is presumed that the ground is rich enough to support it, but a reasonably good crop may be secured.

It serves the purpose of using the ground which would be of no further value unless squash had been planted with the corn, in which case the vines would occupy the ground.

Keeping the ground working all summer is the real way to run a vegetable garden. It is worth experiment, even if the second crop isn't all that it might be. The chances are more in its favor than against it.

Top dressings of nitrate for the cabbage after the corn is cut will speed these vegetables on their way, and there is then a chance for the needed cultivation.

THE OLD TOBACCO BOX

There was an old Geezer and he had a wooden leg.

No tobacco could he borrow, no tobacco could he beg.

There was another old Geezer who took care of his rocks,
He always had tobacco in his old tobacco box.

Said Geezer number one: "Won't you give me a smoke?"

Said the other old Geezer: "You've no cause to be broke."

"If you'd buy a few thrift stamps and save up your dough

"Your store of tobacco wouldn't always run low."

Now this same old Geezer with the same old wooden limb

Is saving up in thrift stamps and you can't stump him.

He's learned to be thrifty and cares for his rocks

And has plenty of tobacco in his old tobacco box.

EDUCATIONAL

"You say this is an educational film?"

"Yes," replied the movie magnate, blandly.

"But it features a vampire!"

"Exactly. We're trying to make the world safe for married men."

It often happens that the man who can speak five different languages never gets a chance to use them because his wife can speak one.

Men are pretty decent fellows as a rule. But when honor and desire clash, we'll take a ticket on desire.

Manufacturers of pneumatic tires in 1920 will consume about 400,000 bales of cotton.

HAVE FERTILIZERS READY FOR DROUTH

It is an excellent plan to have commercial fertilizer on hand to spur the vegetables along when the dry days of the summer come along and just before the crop is maturing. These fertilizers are in powder form and are very easily sprinkled over the soil and hoed in. Being concentrated, it is not necessary to give a heavy dressing. Little and often is a good motto.

There are the balanced formulae fertilizers which are kept in stock by very dealer, which contain all the elements necessary for plant growth, but one of the most convenient and efficient fertilizers is pulverized sheep manure, which can be bought in hundred pound sacks at a price between $2.50 and $3.00.

This may seem high, but the product is all manure, no straw or litter and, in its way, it may be regarded as concentrated. It is dry and easy to handle with a minimum of disagreeable odor. It is one of the best subjects for making liquid manure, using about a peck to a vinegar barrel of water.

For string and lima beans, poultry manure is a fine fertilizer to hoe in. Poultry manure should be dried carefully as soon as collected and broken up fine. Dried quickly, it retains nearly all of its fertilizing content, but if permitted to remain moist, it ferments like other manures and loses its nitrogen in the form of ammonia fumes, which in a henhouse not properly cared for are often very strong.

Blood and bone is a fine fertilizer for any but root crops. It is very good for cabbages and cauliflowers. Nitrate of soda scattered thinly after the crops are well established is good for beets, onions, cucumbers, celery, and egg plants.

Shredded cattle manure is fine as a mulch and fertilizer combined. This is an odorless product of the packing plants. It is particularly valuable as a dressing of lawns, and has the advantage of not containing any weed seeds which will germinate, as they are destroyed in the process of drying it.

While the so-called commercial fertilizers are comparatively expensive, they are worth the money.

If this old world should happen to roll closer to heaven, some of the saints would be scared by the harp-playing of the angels.

Other things may be scarce. But there are always enough sour grapes to go around.

YON AND OLE

A young Swede in South Dakota who had been sent out to collect bills for the general store returned with his report:

"Yon Brown, he say he pay when he sell his wheat, Ole Oleson, he say he pay when he sell his oats and Yon Yonson, he say he pay in Yonuary."

"In Yonuary," repeated the surprised proprietor. "Why he never set a date before. Are you sure he said Yonuary?"

"Vell, Ay tank it bane Yonuary. He say it bane dam cold day when you get your money."

EMBARRASSING

In Georgin they tell a story of a politician who was seeking to win the votes of his district to the end that he might be sent to the House of Representatives. In one speech he thought it might be well to refer to his humble origin and early struggles.

"Gentlemen," he said oratorical-

ly. "I got my start in life by working in a general store for $3 a week, yet I managed to save money."

As he paused impressively a shrill voice from the group of auditors demanded: "Was that before they invented the cash register?"

MIGHT DO

"My hair is coming out," said a man to his doctor. "Please give me something to keep it in."

"Well," said the doctor, "I have an old pill box. Will that do?"
